SECTION-A

Q.1 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below -

The Himalayas are beautiful mountains in the North India. They stretch for two thousand miles from Kashmir to Assam. Some of the world's highest peaks are in Himalayas. The highest peak is Mount Everest. The tops of the mountains are covered with snow throughout the year. Therefore, we call them the Himalayas or the abode of snow. There are many beautiful lakes and forests in the Himalayas. Many passes connect India with Tibet, Turkistan and Afghanistan. Many rivers, the Ganga, the Yamuna, the Brahmaputra and the Beas flow from these mountains. The climate and the scenery of these mountains are so charming that people have built many hill stations there. Many visitors go to these stations for pleasure and relaxation.

Q.2 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below –

Man's journey of life from childhood to old age is very charming and colourful. Youth is the most exciting period of man's life. It is the time to grow and dream. A young man is full of hope, energy and zeal. Nothing is difficult or impossible or dangerous for him. The old people say that the youth is not daring but thoughtless. A young man burns the candle at both ends. He commits mistakes and learns only after burning the fingers. Sometimes the young men misuse their freedom and thus invite difficulties and hardships. <http://www.mpboardonline.com>

They are full of strength, energy and enthusiasm. They become rebels and are no longer afraid of facing the forces of realities. A young man accepts the challenge of evil difficulties. To win or lose the game of life is the mission of his career. He loves to lead an adventurous life and has a keen desire to build up a new world of his dream.

But the period of youth does not last long. Soon it is followed by old age, when he regrets his past mistakes and failures. The weak old man feels helpless, depressed and disappointed. He becomes unfit for any adventure. But some fortunate old people never grow old and continue to feel young and active and make the most even in the last years of their lives. It will not be wrong to say that the youth brings honour and old age commands respect.
